1. The Czechoslovak trade delegation in Belgrade signed an agreement with the Yugoslav Government on or about 5 March to deliver textiles valued at between 150 million to 200 million dinar (official rate) against Yugoslav minerals, chiefly bauxite. The time of delivery is unspecified.
2. On 7 March a high official of Jugometal stated [REDACTED] all prior compensatory negotiations involving the exchange of bauxite abroad for textiles had been cancelled for the next six months. 25X1X
3. Source assumes that the cancellation is attributable to the Czechoslovak-Yugoslav trade agreement.
